

Jackie Carden School 2020-2021

Research shows that when parents are involved in schools, scholars achieve more, attendance is better, grades and test scores are higher and graduation rates increase. Scholars are also more likely to reach his/her highest potential for intellectual, social, emotional and physical growth. Family involvement in education is critical for the success of scholars. To accomplish this, parents, teachers, and scholars need to work together. We ask that you agree to do this by signing and returning this agreement.

Campus Parent Involvement Policy

2020-2021

Campus Principal: Dr. Paula Brooks

Parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring that:

1. Parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning.
2. Parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school.
3. Parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child.

Jackie Carden will review the concepts of a Schoolwide or Targeted Assistance program and parents provide input on the selected program for the year. A Parent School Compact is also reviewed as required by Sections 1118, 1118(b) and 1118(d).

U.S. Education Code Section 6318 requires:

- A. Provide the coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist participating schools in planning and implementing effective parent involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance.

CISD provides a Parent Involvement Coordinator to assistance and support parents regarding opportunities that are available to have a voice in the educational process.

- B. CPOC membership is determined annually through a nomination process at each campus.

Members will conduct, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parental involvement policy in improving the academic quality of the campus. This evaluation will include, identifying barriers to greater participation by parents and use the findings to design improvement strategies. The evaluation will also address parents who are economically disadvantaged, disabled, Limited English Proficient, limited literacy or of a racial or ethnic minority.

Jackie Carden will administers an annual Parent Involvement Survey.

Jackie Carden will involve parents in the joint development of the Title I plan and the process of school review and improvement.

Annually, the school will convene a meeting to which all parents of participating students are invited, to inform the parents of the school's participation in the Title I program and of the parents' right to be involved.

Parents will be provided with the school performance profiles and assistance with interpreting their child's individual assessment results.

Parents will be provided a description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficient levels students are expected to meet.

Parents will be provided with opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions, share experiences with other parents, and to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.

Parents will jointly conduct an evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parental involvement policy and revise as necessary.

The school shall jointly develop with, and distribute to parents the parental involvement policy that describes the requirements in an understandable and uniform format.
